The Daily Star is served by carriers to subscriber in the city of Chechman, and to all the surrounding cities and towns, for the cases per week. Single copies, two cares. By mail, per year, free of past age, 55. Fractional parts of a year at the same rate.

his circulation is larger than that of any other daily paper published in the State of Ohio. Advertising rates for the three editions, $1.00 per square, or 12% tents per line Agate.

BY TELEGRAPH.

From shode Island. NEW YORK, April 8.-The latest from the Rhode Island election gives Hazard 8,685, Lippitt 8,286, Cutler 5,138. The ma-jority for the Republican candidates for Secretary of State, Attorney General and Treasurer, is between 11,000 and 12,000. The vote is the largest ever cast in this State. Hazard has a plurality in the city and county of Providence, and the counties of Washington and Newport. Cutier has a plurality in Kent and Bristol counties. There are twenty vacancies in the General Assembly, and the exciton of Governor depends upon the e ection of Governor depends upon the party successful in filling the vacancies at the next trial. The choice is between Hazard and Lippitt. The friends of the latter claim a majority of the members so far elected.

INGERSOLL'S RELEASE.

The release of James H. Ingersoll from the State's Prison has caused considerable excitement in political circles here, and various causes are assigned for his pardon by the Governor. There is no doubt that the object was to further the butts against Tweed and the old ring.

RAILROAD UNION. At a meeting of the bondholders of the Commbus, Chicago & Indiana Central Railroad, yesterday, counsel advised a union of interests in order to make an equitable and judicious settlement with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

AFTER TWEED. A new suit has been brought against Tweed to recover $6,198,957. An order of arrest has been granted and bail fixed

Washington, D.C., April 8.— The Navy Department has received news of the arrival at Pensacola of the U.S. steamer Department, with the Mexican excursion party on board, who have started North via Jacksonville.

The National Bank Notes received for redemption to day amount to $442,300. The Internal Revenue receipts amount to $67,306, and Customs $571,567.

GOODRICH, ONT., April 8.—Christopher. McRatian caught his foot yesterday in a switch of the Grand Trunk railroad, and before he could extricate it was run over by two cars and killed.

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., April 8 .- Captain John A. Webster, commanding the United States revenue cutter Chase, died here last night of pneumonia. He had been sick only a few days.

Horticultural Society-Trotting Horses Counterfeit Money-Court Adjourned-Zvotogical, Etc.

DAYTON, O., April 8 .- The regular

April meeting of the Montgomery County Horticultural Club was held yesterday at the residence of Mr. William Kramer, near the city limits. The attendance was large. An able essay on the "Best Fertilizers" was read by Mr. L. D. Rey-

Four trotting horses belonging to Mr. Si Keck, of Cincinnati, have been received by Mr. O. W. Dominick, to be trained at the track of the Southern Onio Fair Association.

A great number of counterfeit ten dol-far notes of the First National Bank of York, Pa., are now in circulation here. The District Court having completed the business before it, adjourned sine die yesterday.

Capt. Thompson, of the canal boat Tracer, has been bound over to the Common Pleus Court in the sum of $600 to answer the charge of having been accessory to the robteries committed in the freight cars at the Short-line depot, in

Two large brown bears reached here yesterday for the Zoological collection at the Soldiers' Home.

Democratic Releising. Special to the Star.

COLUMBUS, O., April 8 .- A large crowd assembled at Capitol Square last evening to celebrate the recent triumphs of the Democratic party in this States One hundred guns were fired, and there was a fine display of fireworks. Speeches were delivered by Governor Allen, Senator Thurman, Mayor-elect Heitman, S. K. Donovan, General Ames, and other prominent persons in the party. The speakers were all loudly cheered, and considerable enthusiasm was mani-

There may be seen daily on Chestnut street a man dressed in faultless apparel, with a great diamond upon his breast, vainly endeavoring to outglitter the magnificent solitaire on his finger. In a German university he learned chemistry, and not even Liebig knows it bet-ter. His ocupation is the mixing and the adulteration of liquors. Give him a dozen casks of deodorized alcohol, and the next day each of them will repre-sent the name of a genuine wine or a popular spirit. He enters a wholesale drug store bearing a large basket upon his arm. Five pourds of Iceland moss are first weighed out to him. To raw liquor this imparts a degree of smoothness and oleaginousness that gives to imitation brandy the gibness of that which is most matured. An astringent called catechu, that would almost close the mouth of a glass inkstand, is next in order. A couple of ounces of strychnine, part called for are capitally conveyed to next called for, are quickly conveyed to the vest pocket, and a pound of white vitriol is as silently piaced in the bottom of the basket. The oil of cognac, the sul-phuric acid, and other articles that give fire and body to the liquid poison are al-ways kept in store.—Philadeiphia Cor-respondence.

There have been apprehensions that the almost unprecedented weather experienced since last January would have a disastrous effect upon the fruit crop. A Rochester paper has taken a great deal of pains to ascertain what the prospects really are, and it asserts, as the fesuit of its investigations, that they have not been better for years. The peach tree, throughout Northern, Middle and Western New York, notwithstanding the long and intensely cold weather for the past six or eight weeks, is yet uniquined. The fruit buds look healthy There have been apprehensions that that he gathered himself up, lion-like, and Western New York, notwithstanding the long and intensely cold weather for the past six or eight weeks, is yet uninjured. The fruit buds look healthy and the fight by themselves. It was a yield the coming season. The apple, plum and cherry crops also promise, well. Nursery men have no reason to complain of the small fruits, vines, flowering shrubs, and the different varieties of the more delicate evergreens, as those have been protected by quite a large part, part of the time Moutton was in the care fully discussion; and in respect to the insertion of that have no reason to complain of the small fruits, vines, flowering shrubs, and the different varieties of the more delicate evergreens, as those have been protected by quite a large part, part of the time I thought that Titton had the best of it; and that the structure of the vine of the vines of the vines of the vines of the time I the answered the answer is 'ery different from that, the answer is 'ery different from that.

Barristor on the Oxford Circuit (to witness)—'Now, sir, what is the character is slightly matrimonial.' Barristor on the Oxford Circuit (to witness)—'Now, sir, what is the character is slightly matrimonial.' Barristor on the Oxford Circuit (to witness)—'Now, sir, what is the character is slightly matrimonial.' Barristor on the Oxford Circuit (to witness)—'Now, sir, what is the character is slightly matrimonial.' Barristor on the Oxford Circuit (to witness)—'Now, sir, what is the character

NEWS FROM THE OLD WORLD.

LONDON, April 8.—It is stated that on the anniversary of the Queen's birthday, May 24, there will be a creation of Field Marshals of the army, the recent death of Sir Wm. Gomm having reduced the number to one.

The Welsh miners' strike continues.

The men are determined to hold out, all though in many districts their means have given out, and hundreds of families are dependent on the public for support. The iron masters of South Wales and Monmouthshire threaten to continue the lockout till 1876 rather than submit to the strikers.

BERLIN, April 8.—By the advice of his physicians, Emperor William has abandoned his proposed journey to Italy to visit King Victor Emanuel. The Grown Prince and Princess go instead.

BRUSSELS, April 8.—The public prose-cutors at Liege opened an investigation yesterday into the Duchesne plot for the assassination of Prince Bismarck. This action was taken in consequence of the London, April 8.—A considerable por-tion of yesterday's session in the House of Commons was consumed in the debate on the bill introduced by Fawcett to en-able unmarried women to vote at elec-tions for members of Parliament. Smolteristic of the American people."

What Beecher Says.

BROOKLYN, April 8.-Mr. Beecher's testimony continued after the close of introduced. Moulton took the article and threw it carelessly over, and said, "Rend that, and tell me what you think about it?" and I took the article and read it through, and I was so astounded at the idea of putting such an article before come around and read a statement that he had prepared. I had heard nothing of thing. I asked Moulton what it was He said that he didn't know; he hadn't read it himself; but that Tilton was go-ing to read it to him and to me that night.

So I went there to hear it, and Tiltonthe sentence, he began reading what was called afterward the "true story," and read on until he came to that passage in which I was charged with asking Mrs.

Tilton to be a wire to me, with all that is implied in that term, and he looked up and said: "That is the sentence that is you can stand, the rest of the document won't hurt you." I made no reply; I was lying on the bed, I think. He went on reading, I getting madder and mad-der, and when he had finished I got up der, and when he had finished I got up and began to walk around the room and said nothing; but finally, I think, he or Moulton asked me what I had to say. [Murmurs of applause among the audience.] "Mr. Tilton, it is not for me to say what you shall or shall not pub-lish; but I want you to understand that if you publish that statement, and that sentence in it. I will not stand it nor shall I give you the interview?

German note to Belgium.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

THE sale of seats for the Musical Fes-tival is progressing very favorably and is exceeding the expectation of the most enthusiastic.

der the occasion a successful and enjoy-able one. The same committee, which has by such excellent management made

THE Temperance Fair at Greenwood Hall is in a most flourishing condition.

The lunch-room, under the management of Mrs. H. Robins and Mrs. C. T. Adams, is crowded all day, as an excellent meal land and Wyoming are doing the honors of the dining-rooms to-day.

Some permanent and well-timed im-

MR. WALTER MITCHELL, a brother of Robert and John Mitchelf, of this city, died at his residence in Franklin county, Indiana, yesterday. He was one of the pioneers of this region, baving come to the West fifty-one years ago, and set-tled on the place where he has resided ing the free school system; zealous in all sympathize with his family in their great affliction.

WOOD'S THEATER.-Mr. Toole drew

Board of Councilmen.

The Board of Councilmen met in spec ial session with President I. J. Miller in the chair and twenty-eight members

The call and the minutes of the Fenske, balance due for building abut-ments of bridge over C., H. & D. R. R.; $800 from the General Fund, to pay Mat-thew Lehan for all damages to his property on Lock street near Court, caused nitely postponed.

The ordinances to improve Bellevue avenue, from Auburn avenue to Good-man street; Ravine street, from Browne street to the intersection with Cliff and Warner streets; and Sixth street (East) from Gilbert avenue to 420 feet south to nance to appropriate $2,500 to pay Jo-hanua Carey for dumages to her property on East Sixth street, caused by change of grade, was passed. The ordinances to appropriate money 21st and 22d Wards, to assess a special tax on Gest street, from C. & B. R. R. to Harriet street, was engrossed.

A resolution to improve Thomas street, from Spring Grove avenue to C. & B.

NEWS FROM POINTS AROUND. NORTH BEND .- The following are the Trustees of the newly incorporated vil-lage of North Bend: Samuel Griffith, E. Woodruff, jr. and R. M. Rullson.

from several members.

present

NO. 83

VOL. 7.

CINCINNATI, THURSDAY, APRIL 8, 1875.

GOSSIP.

Silver bars to the value of $22,000 were shipped from New York yesterday. Mrs. Rousby confines herself to twen Grading was resumed yesterday on the Atlantic and Lake Erie railroad, near Rushville.

Mrs. G. W. Glaspill, an old and es-gemed citizen of Lavender, died yesterday morning. Charles Fayrrel, of Crestline, comfiitted suicide at the Weber House this morning by taking opium.

WHAT THE WIRES WHISPER.

Texas is about to be raided by 100 Kan-as editors.

Hubbard Colby, of Mansfield, is under arrest for embezzling funds of the Gas Company, of which he was Treasurer.

Considerable damage was done to rail-roads and telegraphs in the vicinity of Omaha by a severe storm Tuesday night. John Kirk, a brakeman on the Short-line road, had his left hand crushed while coupling cars at Middleton yesterday. Mrs. John McCarthy, an aged resident of Crestline, fell dead at her residence, this evening, from the effects of heart

The United States steamer Dispatch has arrived at Pensacola. The Senato-rial excursion party will leave for the North overland.

It is rumored here this evening that J. C. Harper, of this city, has received the appointment to the State Reform School of Acting Commissioner.

tions for members of Parliament. Smollett said the agitation emanated from a number of turbulent women in America. The bill, if passed, would entranchise women who gained a livelihood by immorality. The House, upon division, refused to order the bill to a second reading by a vote of 152 to 187. Disraeli voted with the minority.

The Times, in an article on Gov. Tilden's message concerning canal frauds. Frankie Snyder, son of Policeman Snyder, of Mansheld, died yesterday after intense suffering, caused from the effects of a bean lodging in his windpipe.

deu's message concerning canal frauds, says: "We all know that at heart the American Nation is as sound as our own, and equally capable of noble im-At Brownsville, Tennessee, last evening, Robert Medlin, County Court Clerk, was snot and killed in his office by two brothers named Henry and Eli Bond.

pulses. The maipractices thus exposed are inexcusable, but corruption is not deep-seated, and is by no means charac-A Conterence of the Y. M. C. Associations at which Indiana, Onio, Illinois, Michigan and Kentucky are represented, is in session at Fort Wayne, Indiana. A man named Foy, charged with murder in Monroe county, Ind., three years ago, was arrested at Atkin Station, Arkansas, on the Fort Smith Railroad, yesour report as follows: There was an interview at Moulton's house, at which the Golden Age slip was The Atlantic and Lake Erie Coal Company met at Bucyrus, O., and elected Hon. C. Foster, President, and W. C. Lement Secretary and Treasurer, for the ensuing year.

A man named J. D. Kilburn, while taking a gun out of a wagon at Wanatan, Ind., last evening, accidentally snot nimself through the abdomen, it is thought fataily. me that I said, "Good heavens! what do you mean, Frank?" He wanted to know what would be the effect of its publica-tion. "Well," said I, "the effect will be inevitable, for the publication will defeat A dispatch from Corinth, Miss., states that Junge James E. Stewart, a promi-nent lawyer and ex-Mayor of that city, and formerly United States Marshal for every thing we have been trying to do. The publication of this article is a disclosure of the matter, and the whole thing becomes public." "Do you think so?" said he. "I know so." Well, there was very little conversation on the subthat District, committed suicide last The residence of William Frost, Midject between us, but that was about the substance. We didn't argue it at all dletown, Ohio, was partially consumed by fire at 5 o'clock jesterday. Most of the furniture was saved. Loss on house and furniture about $700; covered by in-

He propounded it to me to see. That is about the whole that passed between us. Q. Now, Mr. Beecher, I will ask whether at that time, or at any other time, when the Bowen letter in its text or its contents was mentioned as the subject. If you ever admitted, with or The Superintendent of Earlham Col-The Superintendent of Earliam College, Richmond, Ind., was fined $10 in the Mayor's Court, yesterday, for horse-whipping a young lad upon the street, whom he suspected of throwing a circus bill into his wagon.

Mrs. Benjamin Stroll, of Crestline, last time, when the Bowen letter in its text or its contents was mentioned as the subject, if you ever admitted, with or without qualification, any of the charges therein contained? A. I never did. With reference to Titton's connection with Mrs. Woodhull, I deny any responsibility as to its origin, and say before God I am not responsible for it at all.

O. New Mr. Beecher. in reference to night shot and probably tatally wounded a woman with whom she suspected her husband with being intimate. She was accested and held to await the resuit of the injuries.

Q. Now, Mr. Boechar, in reference to an occurrence in the end of October, or the beginning of November, 1872—the publication in the Woodhull & Claffin paper, of what has been known as the "Woodhull Scandal"—prior to the ap-The suit of P. C. Holt, Receiver of the Washington Woolen Muis, on Maumee river, for $1,500 on an insurance poricy issued by the Firemen's Insurance Compearance of the paper, had you learned, in any way or form, that there was to appear any such publication? A. I had.

Q. What was your first knowledge of it? A. My first—I can't give it, except County Agricultural Society meets in County Agricultural Society meets in Tolego to-uay, to consider the purchase of grounds near the city for holding a district tair. The County Commissioners and other officials will attend.

that I had a vague impression, and from what source derived I can't say, that the first knowledge was a visitation at my home of a tail, thin, lank old gentleman, about sixty years of age, who came to tell me there was an awful thing going Rev. L. F. Drake, Minister of the M. E. Church, of the Ohio Conference, who died very suddenly of appoplexy last Sunday, at Bloomingburg, was buried at Logan, O., yesterday, by the Masonic order. Quite a number of Masons from to be published.

Q. Now, where did you first see or read the article itself? A. I never have yet; I am select in my reading. Q. Now, when did any matter of conorder. Quite a number of Masons from the New Straitsville Lodge were pres-

Q. Now, when did any matter of conference come up subsequently to that? A. Perhaps I ought to make a correction by saying, Mr. Evarts, that after this trial had been begun, and I was instructed by counsel to read everything about it, I undertook to read it one day, and got along a little ways in it, but I have forgotten it, and never resumed it. The document called the "True Story" was read to me at Moulton's. A fire broke out, accidentally, in one of the mines at Stockton, Pa., yesterday afternoon, and the miners, at a meeting especially called to consider the question, absolutely refused to assist in put-ting it out, although such action on their part is in direct opposition to their inter-was read to me at Moulton's.

Q. Now state what took place there!
A. Moulton told me that Tilton would A very disastrous explosion of giant gunpowder occurred at San Francisco last evening. A number of frame build-ings occupied as saloons and dwellings were blown to fragments. The wall of the warehouses was crushed, and the whole in a few moments was a mass of flames. Men, women and children were crushed in the falling ruins, or perished the the falling ruins, or perished the flames. shall I give you the interview?
Q. Yes, just state it. A. Tilton began, sitting on the sofa, to fix his papers, and opened the matter to me by saying that there was one single sentence, that if I could stand, he thought I should be able to stand the whole document; and then he commenced reading. He did not read the sentence, he began reading what was in the flames.

H. Roth, a young man residing in Toledo, went to the Dwight House, in that city, and took a room. In the morning he was discovered in a state of unconsciousness, and, though a physician was summoned, he died at noon. The indications showed that Roth had taken morphine for the purpose of self-destruction. A letter assigned as a cause recent trouble with relatives living there. His parents reside in Germany.

The body of a man named Sullivan, who disappeared so mysterjously from the plaster mills at Grand Rapids, Micathe plaster mills at Grand Rapids, Michigan, December 8, and supposed to have been robbed and murdered, was found yesterday in Grand river, near Grand Haven. The supposition is that he fell into the river and drowned and was carried away by the current, and that the body has lain all winter in the river. The checks and money of which he was supposed to have been robbed were all found upon his person. found upon his person.

General Spinner, in the course of a recent interview, said in answer to a ques-tion as to whether there has not been stealing in the Treasury: "Yes. Re-cently there has been money stolen in the National Bank Redemption Agency. When Graves (who is in charge) found out he had a thief with him, he carefully

The teter board of life goes up, The teter board of life goes down, The biggest dog has been a pup, The knave has often worn a crown.

y-seven trunks. How to kindle the fires of ambition-with a spelling match.

The gnu est thing in Washington is a horse with a horn on its nose.

The fellow who asked for a lock of his girl's hair was informed that "it costs

WILLIAM PENN LODGE, I. O. O. F., gives its tenth annual picnic at Parlor Grove on Wednesday, June 9th. The committee having the matter in charge has already chartered the new steamer, Champion No. 9, for the occasion, and made all necessary arrangements to render the occasion a successful and enjoy. money, hair does."

Nislson is very fond of pets. She got into one the other day and laid the old the former annual pienics of this lodge so enjoyable, has charge of the matter for this year, and thus insures the success of the enterprise.

man out with a poker.

Possibly you've never heard of a Mr.
Ristor; but he lives and moves and has his being as much as she does.

A New Orleans prima donna fainted in the midst of an air the other day. It couldn't have been a fresh one.

"Gath" proposes that the jury give Mrs. Tilton to Beecher and Miss Anthony to Theodore, and drop the sub-

Cheap transportation - The sufferers by the Delaware floods straddle the roots of their houses and are carried down stream for nothing.

An Illinois judge has decided that a young man who pays his board has a right to fiddle in his room all day and all night if he pleases.

"Time soutens all things," except the young man who parts his hair in the middle and whistles on the street cars. Nothing can make him any softer than SOME permanent and well-timed improvements are being made at the Gynnasium rooms in the way of additional boxes for the reception of clothing and articles of value belonging to members. They will be appreciated by the members, as it is impossible, even under the excellent management of the present officials, to keep all of that class out who respect other people's grount're a highly he is.

A woman in Dawson, Ga., accidentally bit her tongue off the other day, and since that her husband gets home every evening two hours earlier than usual.

It is said that nothing will cure a poet's affection for his idol sooner than to catch her at the dinner table excavating the kernel of a hickory nut with a harpin.

In Shreveport, the other day, a colored man shot a soldier "in the suburbs." That means, we suppose, he hit him somewhere outside the limits of his cortion. Cincinnati may well be proud of the cortical terms of the cortica

This is the season of the year when the average young man of the period squares his cash, and wonders which taitor he will victimize for a stylish suit

This is the season of the year when the average young man of the period having not only the finest Gymnasium in the West, but of having it under a most excellent management.

MR. WALTER MITCHELL, a brother of

of spring clothes.

The man who picked up a kernel of glant powder and made his autograph upon the hot stove, thinking it was charoal, now employs an amanueusis to sign his bank checks.

A sharp-talking lady was reproved by A sharp-talking lady was reproved by her husband, who requested her to keep her tongue in her mouth. "My dear," she said," "it's against the law to carry concealed weapons."

The grangeresses of Waterville are discussing the question, "How shall we keep our husbands at home evenings?"

We don't exactly know unless they nire handsome servant girls.

Mr. Tilton has three or four hundred unanswered applications for locks of his hair. The fair solicitors are requested to exercise patience until he can get time to start a jute factory.

The man who tried to enforce conjugal obedience with a cowhide subsequently remarked, as he put a fresh piece of court plaster on his nose, that he had a a wife who couldn't be beat anywhere. There is one extremely conscientious girl in Buffalo, who will not permit her over to kiss her during Lent. Her minister advised her to observe the holy season by giving up her greatest plea Customer-I want a mourning suit.

Shopman - What is the bereavement, may I ask? Customer-My mother-inlaw. Shopman-Mr. Brown, show the gentleman to the light affliction depart-It is feared that Spinner's resignation will cause a panic in the rural districts, where the impression prevails that his meeting were read and approved.

A petition by property holders on Logan street for improvements, was referred to the proper Committee. The ordinance to appropriate $3,000 from the General Fund to pay R. C. Phillips, compromise case against City for use of locust blocks; $841 from the General Fund to pay F. Fenske, balance due for building abutgle struggling with the serpent of re-bellion.

A very religious old lady being asked her opinion of the organ of a church, the first time she had ever heard one, re-'It is a very pretty box of whistles, but oh! it's an awiul way to spend-tne Sabbath!"

In Bridgeport they tell of a physicg-nomist who, after attending the Lattin trial, declared that the prisoner's face proved him a man born to be a murderer; but it turned out that he had been mis-takenly studying the features of a law-by overflow; were engrossed.

An ordinance to appropriate $700 from General Fund, to pay A. Pilton for damages to his property on Calbour street, caused by change of grade, was indefi-Arizona hens are accustomed to laying eggs worth $4 a dozen; and the gentle Susan B., inclining her head a little to one side, and argumentatively flourishing per right arm, exclaimes: "See what ven hens can do when they have their

A fastidious gentleman, when breakfasting with a friend and partaking for the first time of tripe, which was slightby pickled, as is the Eastern fashion of end of the present pavements, were en-preparing it, asked, "What kind of meat grossed.

The message transmitting an ordi-dreds of dough-heads getting rich doing nothing, while he is working like a slave for his daily bread, it makes a fellow feel as though the butter of this world was spread by a stepmother.

We shall not always have the reports of the Beecher trial with us. Next sum mer a hot Presidential campaign opened, and the press of political matter opened, and the press of political matter on the newspapers is certain to crowd out the Brooklyn intelligence.

A Corning (Iowa) paper gives currency to the statement that a belle of that town was heard to exclaim at a concert there lately: "How delightful the colored folks sings; their tintimbulations float to my duicet ear like angels' voices ciothed in rhapsody."

Louisville car-drivers are an emaciated set, all from excessive blasphemy. It is rarely that a Louisville girl drops her foot upon the tail-board of a bob-tail car without lifting the front wheels off the track, and this wears on the driver.

without lifting the front wheels off the track, and this wears on the driver.

A Providence woman who had secured a good place to see the St. Patrick procession, reported to a policeman that she had lost her child, and besought him to find it, as she did not dare to go in search of it lest she should "lose her place."

Mr. Spinks is not going to do any more in conundrums. He asked his wife why he was like a donkey, and she said because he was born so, and he says that the answer is 'ery different from that.

Barrister on the Oxford Circuit (to witness)—"Now, sir, what is the character of the plaintiff in this suit?" "Her character is slightly matrimonial." Barrister—"What do you mean by a slightly matrimonial character?" Witness—"She's been married three times." CALIFORNIA, O .- The fight last night

THE CINCINNATI STAR:

RATES OF ADVENTISING.—15 cents per line, each institute, Acade measure. Three months, 125 cents p line. Discount of 5 per cent. on 15 column; 10 p cent. on 1 column. ADVERTISEMENTS, for either WERELT or TET-DAILT, must take the run of the paper and be properly classified. Extra displays, Special and Business Notices, will be authent to advance. No objectionable matter will be admitted at any price whatever.

TROY, O .- The election on Monday TROY, O.—The election on Monday passed without any particular excitement, though both parties worked quite lively. The Anti-Crusade element carried everything by large majority, electing three councilmen and all the township officers. The School Board was also carried by the same party.

Our military company here is called the "Pearson Guards," in honor of Hon.

J. E. Pearson Representative.

J. E. Pearson, Representative.
Cleaning up of streets and yards is the order of the day, as spring has at last arrived.

The old frame business corner on the Public Square is being torn away to make room for a handsome three story brick, and building generally is brisk.

Lexington, Ky.—At the next meeting of the City Council a Health Officer will be appointed by that body. The candidates are Messrs. J. G. Hall, John McCarton. Benj. F. Moore, and Constable J. R. Henesey. The last named gentleman filled the office for three years with satisfaction.

Business is getting hopefully dull in the City Court. Yesterday Judge Muiligan had only one case before him. Ellen Green was fined $3 and costs for a breach of the peace.

is furnished at very low rates. The main hall is tastefully ornamented with fancy and useful articles, and a beautifully decorated temple occupies the center. The Newport Band is still furnishing the most delightful music to the visitors. Large donations of goods have been received from all parts of the State. The art gallery is another of the great features of the Fair. The ladies of Lock-of the peace.

The farmers and gardeners in this vi-

The farmers and gardeners in this vi-cinity are very busy sowing their spring crops. And the suburbs are putting on their delightful aspect.

St. Joseph's Hospital was opened on Wednesday, November 25, 1874, by three Sisters of Mercy from St. Joseph's Con-vent of Mercy, St. Louis, Mo. The first patient was a poor orphan boy, who, having wandered into the town in search of employment, was discovered by some having wandered into the town in search of employment, was discovered by some of the boys of the place and conducted to this hospital. This was on the evening of November 26th, from which time to the present the sick and suffering have found their way from far and near to the humble but hospitable shelter of "St. Joseph's Hospital." Up to this date the number of patients treated amounts to sixty, of whom but three have died, and these were considered hopeless cases when admitted. Of the greater number when admitted. Of the greater number most have recovered and been discharged, others were much benefited before leaving, and a few chronic cases still remain as inmates of the hospital. The skillful physicians of the city give their services tree to this charitable institution. The landlords of this city are much embarrassed in trying to collect their rents from trilling people. The laws seem to throw all sorts of obstacles in the way of property owners. This state of things deters many capitalists from inever since, and may properly be termed one of the pioneers that helped to de-velop and improve what was then al-most a wilderness. He was active and foremost in encouraging and establishvesting their surplus capital in tenement works of public improvement tending to develop and improve the resources of the country. He was highly respected A donkey case has occupied a considerable time of the Common Pleas Court.

The Republicans of Fayette county will hold primary meetings on the 17th instant for choosing delegates to the Convention to be held Saturday, April 24th, for the purpose of nominating can-didates for Magistrates and Constables.

The long table in the Court-room, for the use of the attorneys, is covered with zinc to prevent these leisure gentlemen from cutting the wooden part by whiling and whittling away the golden period of their lives. by his neighbors and associates in Franklin county and by his acquaint-ances and friends in this city, who will and whitting away the golden period of their lives.

Gas is furnished to consumers in Covington at $2.50 per 1,000 cubic feet. The Gas Company in this city charge consumers $4.50 per 1,000 cubic feet. Our citizens would like to know whether the Gas-works are run for the benefit of the community at large or for the enrichment of a few corporators at the expense of our industrious people.

The large pictures of wild animals that disgrace the front entrance to the County Court-house afford an opportunity to study natural history to a large portion of our juvenile population. large audience last evening, when The Cricket on the Hearth and Tol L'on Parle Francaise" were presented. As "Caleb Plummer" and "Spriggins" he gave further proof of his versattle and incomparable abilities as a comedian. This evening "Cricket on the Hearth" will be repeated for the only time; the performance to be supported by the comparable by the supported by the ance to be supplemented by the amusing farce, "The Steeple Chase."

of our juvenile population.

A special train will leave Mount Sterling this evening for the accommodation of persons living along the line of the road who wish to attend the play of Rip HAMILTON .- Alex. A. Scott, Esq., is at home on a brief visit to his family.

Edward Hughes, deleated candidate for Mayor and beaten by a majority of forty votes, will, it is reported, contest the election on the plea of erroneous counting. After that then Davidson will have a chance to contest Hughes' elec-tion, and so on down the line. Tuesday afternoon Jacob Ritter, a highly esteemed farmer living a tew highly esteemed farmer living a lew miles west of the city, was accidentally killed while in the act of loading a wagon with a large log. His head and tace were crushed beyond recognition. His sudden death has caused a gloom over the entire neighborhood. He leaves a wife and six children. Mr. Ritter was a brother-in-law of Jacob Waiter, of this

The County Commissioners held a session yesterday and passed several small bills; also renewed the insurance on the different county buildings.

Quite a good deal of merriment was created yesterday by the payment of several election scores. The most indicrous and which attracted the greatest crowd was the wheeling of two prominent First Warders, from the No. 1 Engine-house over the suspension bridge to the bouse over the suspension brings to the Court-house square, in a wheelbarrow, Messrs. Chas. Becker and Fred. Putbon were the passengers, while Jack Miller, and Henry Sohn guided the vehicles. The barrows were richly decorated and the expedition headed by a band of music created no little stir. A large number of citizens followed along with an occasional cheer. The ordinances to appropriate money for final passage, viz: $1,500 General Fund, to Pay John Enright, for damages to his property near Main and Evans streets, caused by overflow. $500 General Fund; to pay Michael Kelly, for damages to his property on Lower River road, caused by overflow. $500 General Fund to pay Johanna and Edward Sheahern, for damages to their property on Sixth, near Evans street, caused by overflow, were left with the Committee on Claims.

The report of the Trustees of the 20th, 21st and 22d Wards, to assess a special

The large and elegant cake, on the occasion of the serenade and reception at the residence of Capt. Travis, on Mouday night, was presented by the Reed Bros, of Middletown. It was acknowledged to be the finest cake ever sent to Hamilton.

Council Proceedings.—Council mas last night, according to adjournment, and transacted the following business;
The Committee on Claims reported bills for the month of March, amounting to the sum of $6,631 08, divided among the different funds as follows: Interest fund, $86 68 salary fund, $1,389 16; First, Ward street fund, $4; Second Ward street fund, $5; Third Ward street fund, $9; Fourth Ward street fund, $19; general expense, $2,519 73; Fire Department,
$1,155 81; gas, $1,325 67; Lane Library, $117 05; total, $6,631 08. On motion, the report was received.

A remonstrance was presented by Council Proceedings .- Council mes R. R., was adopted.

The body then went into Committee of the Whole, and listened to the farewell address of President Miller and remarks

A remoustrance was presented by property holders on East Heaton, protesting against a grade lately established. The petition was received and laid on the table.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:
Be it resolved by the City Council of the City of Hamilton, That the salary of the City Clerk be sixty dollars per month, payable quarterly.
An ordinance appropriating $5.631.08 for the payment of the bills as reported by the Committee on Claims was introduced, and, on suspension of the rules, passed.